2014 CHEHALEM RIDGECREST VINEYARDS GRUNER VELTLINER

Completely blown away by this wine.

Tasted it on 3 different occasions and am stunned at its complexity and acidity from a 9-year-old white wine.

Gruner Veltliner is native to Austria and grows exceptionally well in Oregon. Tongue tickling with lime, tangerine and quince + terrific balance.

2020 ALVARADOS~HOBBS GODELLO RIBERA SACRA

One of the oldest wine grape varieties on the Iberian Peninsula, Godello is regarded highly for its delicate texture and medium high acidity.

This collaboration between global vitner Paul Hobbs, and Antonio Lopez a local wine-grower who introduced Paul to this tiny mountain town in Galicia surrounded by steep, terraced vineyards, is truly an awesome wine! 93pts J Suckling

2017 LANGE PINOT NOIR WILLAMETTE VALLEY RESERVE

Stunning dark cherries, boysenberries, savory herb notes and a hint of baking spice make this stunner from Willamette Valley.

The Lange family moved North from California because they were so taken with a bottle of Oregon Pinot Noir. 30 years later, they are considered one of the best winery families in the region.

2019 BLACKBIRD VINEYARDS ARISE

10-acre plot of vineyards in the Oak Knoll District of Napa Valley is where the Blackbird magic happens.

Winemaker Aaron Pott has a real talent for blending, especially Bordeaux varieties.

This Merlot based blend is a testament of his time at Chateau Troplong - Mondot in Saint Emilion. Luxurious + incredibly priced.

2017 MAZZI AMARONE DELLA VALPOLICELLA PUNTA DI VILLA

Amarone is such a time and labor-intensive wine. After harvest, the grapes are left to dry out for 3-4 months before pressing them for their remaining juice (could be 40-50% less after drying out).

Blending Corvina, Corvinone, Rondinella and Molinara grapes together for this powerhouse of a wine and perfect for cold-weather fare like short ribs or stews.
